

Scholarship Database

Each year, applicants from all over the world have shown interest in MAIDS programme. A half of the students, who were accepted by the programme, were from Southeast Asian countries, and most of them were fully supported by organizations and foundations, both single and joint scholarships. Therefore, MAIDS programme creates current scholarship database for those applicants who are interested in our programme.

❖ SCG Foundation – ASEAN Foundation – MAIDS Programme Scholarship

SCG Foundation, the ASEAN Foundation and the Master of Arts in International Development Studies (MAIDS) is pleased to grant up to 3 full scholarships for individuals wishing to study at the Master of Arts Program in International Development Studies at Chulalongkorn University.

- Two scholarships are open to government or non-profit sector employees from each of the following two Southeast Asian countries: (1) Cambodia and (2) Vietnam
- One scholarship is open to a government or non-profit sector employee who lives in the far South of Thailand or would like to conduct his or her thesis on conflict in that area.

Website: <http://www.scgfoundation.org/en/childrenAndYouthCat.asp?id=14>

❖ Heinrich Böll Stiftung Foundation

The Heinrich Böll Stiftung (HBS), Southeast Asia Regional Office, Thailand would like to encourage candidates from Myanmar/Burma to apply for its Scholarship Program for Master of Arts in International Development Studies (MAIDS), Chulalongkorn University in Bangkok, Faculty of Political Science (1 academic year) Myanmar.

Website: <http://www.boell-southeastasia.org/web/index.html>

❖ Kearny Alliance

The Kearny Alliance is encouraging bright motivated individuals with an interest in international trade to apply for our comprehensive scholarship, skills training and career development program.

Website: http://www.kearnyalliance.org/scholarships_2011.aspx

❖ Thabyay Education Network and the faculty of political science, Chulalongkorn University

Chulalongkorn University's Faculty of Political Science and the Thabyay Education Network collaborate on a program to enable students from Myanmar, Cambodia, and Laos to obtain jointly funded scholarships for Master's of Arts in International Development Studies (MAIDS) programme, Faculty of Political Science, Chulalongkorn University.

Website: <http://thabyay.org/index.php>

❖ Consortium of Development Studies in Southeast Asia (CDSSEA)

The Consortium of Development Studies in Southeast Asia (CDSSEA) is awarding scholarships to candidates from Cambodia, Myanmar, Laos, Vietnam and Thailand who would like to pursue a Master's degree in development studies in Thailand. Under the CDSSEA scholarship Program, applicants can choose to study on one of three leading development programs, namely: the Master of Arts in International Development Studies (MAIDS) at Chulalongkorn University, the Master of Arts in Sustainable Development (MASD) at Chiang Mai University or the Master of Science in Gender and Development Studies (MGDS) at the Asian Institute of Technology.

Website: <http://cgssea.weebly.com/>

❖ Thailand International Development Cooperation Agency (TICA) Scholarship

The Royal Thai Government's Thailand International Development Cooperation Agency (TICA), Ministry of Foreign Affairs has offered Master's scholarships for students, from several nations, in different courses.